<sup>22</sup> But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup> gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. <sup>24</sup> And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. <sup>25</sup> If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit.

Our church is struggling with many issues. Foremost is calling a fulltime pastor. It is easy to lose hope in such a time as this. I came across a chapter in Matthew Harrison's book called Take Courage. He does a wonderful job of giving us courage when all around us is a world of discouragement. The chapter is called: Courage in the Darkness

Our world is completely unhinged. The evil that we hear of in the 24-hour news cycles, so often tragically affecting so many in our church body, is but a symptom of the chaos of the "gray and latter days". The political world is unhinged. The ethical world is unhinged. The social world is unhinged. The religious world is unhinged. The educational world is unhinged. The entertainment world is unhinged. St Paul saw it already and knew that it would get worse:

But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people. For among them are those who creep into households and capture weak women, burdened with sins and led astray by various passions, always learning and never able to arrive at a knowledge of the truth. (2 Timothy 3:1-7)

And yet, there is a candle in the darkness. Like a lone paschal candle lit before Easter sunrise, the light of Christ is burning and the dawn of resurrection is glowing on the horizon, "Jesus spoke to them, saying, 'I am the light of the world. Whoever follows Me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life'" (John 8:12). And joyous wonder, as we look eastward for His return, Jesus brightens our faces even now, even as He pulls us out of darkness toward and into His marvelous light! He makes those who are His shine like Himself, for the sake of the lost.

You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden, nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others. So that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. (Matthew 5:14-16)

in this same chapter of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus tells it like it now is and puts a surprisingly joyous spin on it:

Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on My account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you. (Matthew 5:11-12)

And so, I shall "rejoice and be glad." I shall not be burdened with anger and hatred, I shall confess it, and then I shall rejoice and be glad! In the face of fear and a myriad of pressures and challenges in the church, I shall rejoice and be glad. Luther said that the evil of original sins so profound it can't be understood, but only believed; in the face of unspeakable and unfathomable evil, I shall "rejoice and be glad". And in this merciless world, marching to a funeral dirge because it does not yet know Christ, I shall, with St. Paul, sing Christ's name among those who don't yet know him:

"Therefore, I will praise you among the Gentiles, and sing to Your name."

And again, it is said, "Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people." (Romans 15:9-10). Because Christ has grabbed my heart and soul, my body and being; because He has brought me from darkness to light through Holy Baptism; because He regularly forgives my sins anew in Holy Absolution; because through my pastor He preaches forgiveness, peace, and joy into my ears and down to my soul; because he consoles me by the words and Christian encouragement of brothers and sisters in the faith; because he sets before me a feast of His very body and blood for my forgiveness...I shall be courageous and joyful.

From the Aaronic blessing at the end of the service until I return again for the trinitarian invocation, I shall march into my vocation as a light amid the darkness – as a sinner, to be sure, worn and torn, but glowing with Christ's own light. I shall rejoice wherever the truth of Christ is known, whole or even in part and yet I shall be fully Lutheran, for that is to be fully biblical.

May The God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope. (Romans 15:13)

BIBLE READING SCHEDULE

Fireworks are a popular and exciting way to celebrate the 4th of July. Many cities hold fireworks displays to celebrate the 4th. The bright lights and the loud booms remind us of the battles which were fought to secure our country's freedoms.

Isaiah too was privileged to see wondrous things as he saw God sitting on His heavenly throne (Isaiah 6). In this encounter, Isaiah was set free from his sins to preach the Gospel. In Isaiah's preaching he proclaimed the virgin birth of Christ (Isaiah 7:14; Matt. 1:22-24); Christ's epiphany to the Gentiles (Isaiah 11:10; 60:1-7; Matthew 2:1-11; Romans 15:12); the ministry of John the Baptist (Isaiah 40:1-5; Luke 3:1-6) Christ's suffering and death (Isaiah 50:6; 52:13-53:12).

As you read Isaiah's book in the monthly Bible reading schedule, look for Christ in the above passages and many more. You will be assured that His grace is sufficient to cleanse you of all your sins.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS:

Sunday School News:

We have had a wonderful year with all of our students. Sharing the love of Jesus Christ with these young minds is a very rewarding experience and we thank all the parents who make the extra effort to get their kids to Sunday School. We look forward to seeing everyone in the Fall.

Take a Box – Pack a Box

Ask Jen LaCroix or Aimee Hill for a Christmas shoebox, take it home and fill it with toys, hygiene items and education items. Then, return it to church to be stored until collection week in November. Toys, games, soap, t-shirts, paper, pencils and more to help fill your box are available in the Shoebox room!

Sunday School children will pack boxes in the fall, but we are planning for a more manageable number to be packed by our young Sunday School kids.

Small toys and games, trinkets, jewelry, cups/water bottles and craft/school supplies, toothbrushes, washcloths, bar soap and items for ages 2-14, for both boys and girls. To make donations, please remove bulky packaging and drop off items at the church office. (No liquids, pastes, glue, putty, dough or slime of any kind. No toy guns or military items.) Monetary donations for the $10 shipping fee per box are also needed. Thank you! Questions about Operation Christmas Child? Please contact Jen LaCroix 507-384-1079 jenlax@gmail.com, or Aimee Hill in the church office 507-835-2647.

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them (Ephesians 2:10).

On our Mission Grant bookmark for the 2022-24 biennium, the simple description of Mission Grant #12 (International Outreach – Hope Lutheran High School, Winona) states: “This international program is complete with housing for four years, resident directors, and house supervisors.” $20,000 to give a few international students a place to live for four years while studying at a Lutheran high school? How nice, I thought.

But meeting the five dynamic students from Ghana who live in Hope House, the housing provided by our mite dollars, was more than just nice. It was a joy, a delight, and a true privilege! These young people are shining bright lights into a world darkened by sin and unbelief, simply by being who God fearfully and wonderfully made them to be.

Rocky Sandcork, principal of Hope Lutheran High School, which is housed together in a beautiful new building with St. Martin's Lutheran School of Winona, spoke at the Winona Zone Spring Fling on April 15, 2023. "Our association churches are so supportive, and they help us keep the focus on Jesus," he humbly said. And focus on Jesus they do, providing an education designed to train the students of Hope Lutheran for battle. "These kids are daily in the devil's kingdom," said Sandcork, "The devil is battling for them constantly and they must have God's Word in their hearts and on their lips." As a teacher, a parent, and a mission-minded woman, I was truly encouraged to hear the purpose of Christian education so simply yet profoundly stated!

Not only are the students at Hope Lutheran High School daily engaged with the Word of God and learning how this Word informs and impacts their lives in God's kingdom, these sixty-three students, eleven of whom are from foreign countries, regularly go out into the community to provide visits to shut-ins and assist with other service projects. They are truly His workmanship, learning to live out the faith they profess, "vigorously making known the love of Christ," as the mission statement of The Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod states.

The women gathered for the morning event were treated to a wonderful tour of both the education building and Hope House. After Mr. Sandcork finished his presentation on the history of both the high school and their international outreach initiative, the Ghanaian students introduced themselves and answered questions as well. It was especially wonderful to hear that several of them are considering future careers in church work, including the possibility of seminary someday! Besides the students from Ghana, Hope is currently hosting international students from Ecuador, Thailand, Bangladesh, Mongolia, Turkey, and Croatia. With the celebration of Pentecost fresh in our memories, it's a blessing to ponder the ways that the Holy Spirit is still breaking down the language barriers leftover from the tower of Babel. For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, "I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth," (Acts 13:47).

Faithfully submitted,
Molly Loder
VP of Gospel Outreach, 2022-26

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY: Ladies: We'd like to invite you to our Women's Bible Study. We are beginning a new video series, The Path to the Cross: Embracing Obedience and Sacrifice. These videos are by Ray VanderLaan and Focus on the Family. The first lesson is "The Way of the Essenes." About 150 years before the birth of Jesus, some of God's people, the Essenes, established a community in the Judean Wilderness, near Qumran, where the Dead Sea were found. We will see why this group of God's people went into the desert to live and the role they played in God's story of redemption. We meet the first and third Wednesdays of the month; in July that will be July 5 and 19. We meet at the north end of the basement. The west door by the elevator will be open. Join us for study and fellowship.
