"Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name! For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations."

It is the season of Thanksgiving. A time to pause in our busy lives and really be thankful for our many blessings. Among them family, friends, home, finances, employment, food, health and the freedom to worship. Our Lord Jesus Christ deserves our thanks and praise for He is the source of our blessings. But more important than thanking Jesus for your daily needs, thank him for your salvation!

1 Corinthians 15:57

"But thanks be to God, who gives us the Psalm 100:4-5 victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." That eternal victory, we did not earn and certainly don't deserve. It is a gift that was paid for by Jesus' blood on the cross.

As told in Luke 17, Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem and he encountered ten lepers. They pleaded for him to have mercy and he said "Go and show yourselves to the priests." As they left, they were healed but only one came back to thank Jesus.

We are often like the nine lepers that did not return to thank Jesus? When our prayers are answered, do we forget to thank him with all our heart? Maybe this year is the year to give thanks with a truly grateful heart

Giving thanks in churches can be a game changer! How many of the staff, elders, calling committee members, council members, volunteers and musicians have you thanked lately? Everyone likes to feel appreciated and valued! Too often we disregard the hard work that keeps the church open. From the person that unlocks the doors, makes sure the temperature is set, cleans the rooms, answers the phone, hangs the paraments, greets you at the door, fills the communion cups, runs the technology, creates the bulletin, brews the coffee, counts the offering, waters the plants, takes care of the grounds, shovels the walk, decorates the church, teaches the children, or supports the youth. I could go on and on but you get the picture.

This month I encourage you to lift someone's spirits and show appreciation for their time. You can say thank you in person, send a text or email, write a personal thank you note, or simply lift them up to God in prayer.

A few years ago, I was ordering my food in a fast-food restaurant. I noticed a mother and young child come in. It was obvious that both were under some sort of stress. As I was paying for my food, I got the urge to pay for their bill as well. After they ate, the child came over to my table with a big smile and said thank you. It was an uplifting moment for both of us!

Being thankful can change a life and sometimes the changed life is your own!

I am thankful for each one of you!

Happy Thanksgiving,

Pastor Bob

Bible Reading Schedule

As we come to the close of another Christian Church Year, our eyes are turned to the Second Coming of Jesus Christ our Savior. In His Word, God encourages us to be prepared for that day. Our Bible Reading Schedule reminds us that the Last Day will come at an unknown time and day. Thus we need always to be ready for it (Matthew 25:13). On the Last Day, all human beings will be judged. Without faith in Christ, the unbelieving "goats" will be condemned to hell for eternity. With God's grace received in faith, the believing "sheep" will be ushered into the eternal glories of heaven (Matthew 25:31-46). This free gift of salvation moves us to thank and praise God for an eternal home. Look for passages in this month's reading schedule which encourage the giving of thanks to God, and the need to be prepared for the Last Day.

At a recent Cotta Guild Meeting, we decided on a name change and plan for our service to the former Secret Brothers and Sisters, who are homebound. We changed the name of our service to Caring for Brothers and Sisters in Christ. We will draw a name of a homebound member at the beginning of the year and let that person know our name. We will send that person a card each month of that year and pray for him/her, as we have in the past. The Change is that our name will no longer kept secret from them for the year. Thank you for serving our homebound members in this way to brighten their day, to encourage them, and to lift them up in prayer. Thanks Cindy Wood

Mites for Missions: Financial Assistance for Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana, Food and Clothing Co-op ($10,000):

The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food at the proper time. You open your hand and satisfy the desires of every living thing (Psalm 145:15-16 NIV).

Voting delegates of the Minnesota South District LWML overwhelming selected this as one of two top recipients of their mission grant votes at our June convention! Our mission-minded women understand the tremendous support that the CTSFW Food and Clothing Co-ops provide to seminarians and their families, often offsetting as much as 85% of a family's grocery budget. Deaconess Katherine Rittner, Food and Clothing Co-op Director, was recently kind enough to share some interesting facts that our mission-minded women might NOT know about the co-ops.

"Mission grant monies are restricted and used only for the purchase of items provided in the Food Co-op as well as the processing of the hogs and steers that are donated to us year-round," Rittner says. While the co-ops do employ several full- and part-time workers, mission grant dollars are never used for this purpose. Much of the work is done by seminarians who volunteer their time to help sort and restock. Rittner speaks highly of the student volunteers, "The time that the students provide is so they can show their appreciation to our amazing donors for their continued care and support. It is also how the students earn their points to shop in the Food Co-op which are assigned based on their family size and ages of their children." Curious about what exactly your LWML mite dollars buy? Rittner explains, "We purchase fresh milk, eggs, and produce on a weekly basis for our students to shop for every Tuesday. We also order monthly from Sam's Club individually wrapped fish filets, butter, cream cheese, diapers (sizes 1-6), wipes, laundry detergent, and dishwasher detergent. In addition, we purchase items to stock the shelves from Aldi, wholesale retailers, and Dollar Tree: cereal, tortillas, spaghetti, canned goods, seasoning, flour, sugar, oil, personal hygiene (shampoo, conditioner, deodorant, razors, shaving cream), almond milk (for those with allergies), and gluten free items as we can get them. An added plus is that we are a member of the local Food Bank which allows us the opportunity to purchase items at a greatly reduced rate." What a host of mighty blessings come from those little mites!

August is a busy time of year, with the arrival of new students and the return of vicars to campus, "sometimes with more family members than what they left with," Rittner points out. "The vicars are always the most thankful and appreciative of the co-ops because they have been out and away for a year and have had to figure out how to do it on their own. Of course, the congregation that they have spent the last year at does amazing at caring for them, but it doesn't compare to what we are able to do at the co-ops with your help." Rittner concludes, "The 'first-timers' are always the best. When they first come in to shop and have no idea how to do it, sometimes it makes for a special bonding time with them because of their amazement that so many from across the country have taken an interest in their well-being and that they are being provided for while they are here preparing to go into the harvest field of Christ."

Book suggestions for the "young of heart":

- The Joyful Christian
 - C.S. Lewis, himself a convert, wrote of being "surprised by joy" when he discovered his belief in Jesus Christ. In these 127 devotional readings, selected from Lewis's many works on faith and spirituality, Christians everywhere can share in the joy of this master theologian as he discusses topics ranging from the nature of prayer and good works to psychoanalysis and fascism. In "The Joyful Christian", Lewis offers inspiration for all those who hunger and thirst after joy.
- A Boy From C-11: Case #9164
 - The Minnesota State Public School for Dependent and Neglected Children housed more than 10,000 children during its sixty-year history. Harvey Ronglien shows readers a panoramic view of this institution, first through the eyes of a child, then as an adult, and finally as its most proactive and respected historian". This is an honest, heart-wrenching account of one boy's struggles to overcome his difficult childhood and his later commitment to ensure that the children of the State School will not be forgotten. People of all ages can learn from Harvey's stories".

Book suggestions for our "Youth":

- Chocolate-Covered Baloney – Confessions of April Grace
 - The last thing April Grace wants is more change in her life – but that's exactly what she gets! Plus, April has a new mystery to solve when Myra Sue starts sneaking around and acting very suspicious!
From snooty new neighbors to starting junior high to getting a new baby brother to having her grandmother get a boyfriend, April Grace has had enough change to last until she is at least 87 years old.
BUT when it rains, it pours, and April Grace is in for the ride of her life when her prissy, citified neighbor Isabel becomes her gym teacher and a long-lost relative suddenly appears and throws everything into a tizzy. On top of that, April's sister, Myra Sue, has been hiding something and sneaking around. Will April find the grace she needs to handle her topsy-turvy life and forgive past wrong?
Girls will fall in love with April's humor and completely relate to her as she deals with family, friends, drama, and both the humor and the heartache that are a part of growing up

St. Paul Lutheran Church
Attn: Scholarship Committee
314 4th Ave NE
Waseca, MN 56093

To the members of the committee and the congregation at St. Paul,

Hello again, this time from Lake Elsinore, California! Thank you so much for your continued support, both financially and prayerfully! I am sending this letter to give you all an update on where I am in my seminary training. My wife, Tirzah, and I arrived in Lake Elsinore, California on July 28th after traveling across the country and visiting 5 National Parks on the way. I was greeted with a potluck and was installed on July 31st. The congregation at First Lutheran Church has been very welcoming and has been so generous in what they have provided for us! With everything the congregation came together to offer us, we were able to make the trip out in just one vehicle and only bring personal items and clothes. What a blessing that was!

I have now been able to work with Pastor Kolander here to write a sermon every week and have been blessed with the opportunity to preach about every-other week! These sermons are on Facebook if anyone is interested in those. Additionally, I was able to teach Catechism class each week and visit some folks who haven't been able to make it to the Sunday services regularly. It has been a wonderful time for me to be able to share God's great Gospel message of Christ to so many people! Tirzah has also been able to be active in church, working on craft projects with the members of the congregation for a craft fair they will be putting on in November.

Over the past few years, you all have been such a blessing to me, both financially as well as with your prayers. I am so thankful for your continued support so that I have not had to worry about finances while Christ has been forming me into a preacher of His Word, even now while I am on vicarage. I ask that you keep me in your prayers as I continue getting practical experience in California as well as Tirzah as she continues to be involved here. As always, I will continue to keep you in my own!

In Christ,

Mission Projects 2022 - 2025 Waseca Circuit, LCMS

At the October 2nd, 2022 Circuit Forum held at Trinity Lutheran Church, Janesville, the pastors and lay representatives reviewed the mission projects we endeavor together as a Waseca Circuit.

The representatives expressed thanks to God for the mission projects that were supported the last triennium. They voted to continue to support the same missions in the next triennium, with one addition: Luther Classical College. This new Lutheran college will be opening in 2025 in Casper, Wyoming.

We praise God for the opportunity our congregations have to support these missions collectively. Please remember them in your prayers. Thank you for your congregation's annual support in this endeavor - as there will be a commitment increase of $1500/year!

LUTHER CLASSICAL COLLEGE

Luther Classical College (opening in the fall of 2025) will provide a conservative, classical Lutheran education to Lutheran students. Paramount will be the promotion of Christian culture, a stress on the priority of Christian marriage, family, and piety, and a cultivation of confessional Lutheran theology, liturgy, hymnody, and identity. With courses using the "great books" of the past for the core curriculum, the college will offer Latin, history, theology, literature, logic, rhetoric, music, geometry, biology, and mathematics, all within a purposefully Christian and Lutheran framework. We will support this mission at $1500/year.

Rev. Edward and Monica

Nauman. Rev. Nauman is currently serving as a Director of the South Asia Lutheran Mission (SALM) to bring the Gospel to so many who have yet to know Christ. We will support this mission at $3000/year.
